Recessional Hymn

Now thank we all our God
with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things has done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms
has blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love,
and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God
through all our life be near us,
with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us,
to keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
of this world in the next.

Message of Pope Francis for World Mission Sunday 2018

'Together with young people, let us bring the Gospel to all'

Dear young people, I would like to reflect with you on the mission that we have received from Christ. In speaking to you, I also address all Christians who live out in the Church the adventure of their life as children of God. What leads me to speak to everyone through this conversation with you is the certainty that the Christian faith remains ever young when it is open to the mission that Christ entrusts to us.

"Mission revitalizes faith" (Redemptoris Missio, 2), in the words of Saint John Paul II, a Pope who showed such great love and concern for young people. The Synod to be held in Rome this coming October, the month of the missions, offers us an opportunity to understand more fully, in the light of faith, what the Lord Jesus wants to say to you young people, and, through you, to all Christian communities.

Dear young people, this coming October, the month of the missions, we will hold the Synod devoted to you. It will prove to be one more occasion to help us become missionary disciples, ever more passionately devoted to Jesus and his mission, to the ends of the earth. I ask Mary, Queen of the Apostles, Saint Francis Xavier, Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus and Blessed Paolo Manna to intercede for all of us and to accompany us always.

A FEW WORDS FROM FR. JOE.....

The month of October in the church is the month of Mission.

In these days we think about, pray for and raise funds for the missionaries who are busy all over the developing world bringing the Good News of the Gospel to the world's poorest people.

They do a wonderful job and have contributed so much to building up the Kingdom of God, and they daily transform lives with their efforts in education, health and pastoral care.

Next Sunday we will have our annual collection to contribute towards the costs of their heroic work. Missionaries are also needed at home.

The message of Jesus and the life of his church are crying out to be renewed in Ireland, in Dublin, in our Parish. Missionaries are those who talk about their faith, live by the values of the Gospel, try to interest others in the life of the Church and the message of eternal life.

Each of us can reflect on our life of faith and ask ourselves are we taking every opportunity to talk up our faith. So many people in our community experience loneliness, despair, isolation and depression, they are just waiting for someone to share their faith, hope and love with them.

Missionaries smile a lot, they see beauty in the most difficult of places and somehow, they know that God is right there with his people in their pain. Let's be missionaries and get a smile back on our faces.

The Mater Dei Centre for Catholic Education (MDCCE), DCU Institute of Education, is pleased to host an evening with Professor John Sullivan (Liverpool Hope University and Newman University, Birmingham) on Monday 22nd October at 7pm in Room E214, DCU St. Patrick's Campus. His topic is: What Catholic voice for a changing society?

We would be very pleased if you can join us that evening for what promises to be a very stimulating discussion. John's many publications reflect on contemporary issues around education, theology, faith and culture.
