Entrance Hymn

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart,
Be all else but naught to me, save that thou art.
Be thou my best thought in the day and the night
Both waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.

Riches I need not, nor man's empty praise,
Be thou my inheritance now and all days.
Be thou and thou only the first in my heart,
The King of high heaven, my treasure thou art.

Recessional Hymn

Holy God, we praise thy name
Lord of all, we bow before thee,
All on earth thy sceptre own,
All in heaven above adore thee
Endless is thy vast domain,
Everlasting is thy reign.

Hark, with loud and pealing hymn,
Thee the angel choirs are praising.
Cherubim and seraphim
One unceasing chorus raising,
Ever sing with sweet accord,
Holy, holy, holy Lord

Spare thy people, Lord we pray,
By a thousand snares surrounded.
Keep us free from sin today
Never let us be confounded.
All my trust I place in thee
Never, Lord, abandon me.

“Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the LORD”
Psalm 1:24

Parish News & Announcements:

A few words from Fr. Joe ...

I chatted with some very happy girls during the week, their exams were finished! The long haul through the Leaving Cert had left them exhausted, delighted and if the truth be told, a bit sad. They realised that there would be no more of all that they enjoyed about school, their familiar surroundings, the very best of friends, the likeable teachers, the ordinary routine. The Leaving sucks you in as a pupil and coughs you out as an adult with third level studies to come and a whole new world to negotiate. “I will really miss it so much” one exclaimed. And then in a twinkle of an eye they were talking about the future, the holiday in some sun soaked island with their friends, the courses they applied for and the hopes they have for the future. I know that school will become a place that they ‘were’ in, a place where they no longer belong, a place that they may visit and in time have reunions of 10, 20,..50 years. School has formed them more than they realise, teachers have given more than good preparation for exams, friends, sports, activities have all mined their talents and creativity and helped them become these bright cheerful young women.

I hope and pray that all our students will thrive in the next phase of their lives, that they will hold tight to the families and parishes that cherish them and that whatever the future holds that they will always feel at home and welcome here.

The Holy Ghost Missionaries

Next weekend our Masses will be celebrated by a Holy Ghost Missionary Priest. The Congregation of the Holy Spirit (Holy Ghost Missionaries) is a registered Charity in Ireland whose charitable purposes includes working on the missions by building up communities and providing resources and support for those in need. They aim to help the poorest and most abandoned in society. One of their Team will speak about his own Mission experiences and the works of the Congregation world-wide. All donations go directly to their Missionary Work in its entirety. Thank you to the people, the Parish and the Diocese for all their support in the past.

CHY2 CERTIFICATES

CHY Tax Certificates are in the process of being sent out to Parishioners who have contributed more than €250 per annum.

Can you please return the completed CHY 3 form to the Parish Office or to Fr. Joe, in the envelope enclosed with your letter as soon as possible.

Thank you to all who contribute donations so generously to the Parish.

A Warm Welcome!

This weekend we celebrate our last ‘Do This In Memory Programme’ for this year's 1st Holy Communion Classes. We warmly welcome the children and their families from Our Lady's National School & St. Kilian's Deutsche Schule to Clonskeagh Parish. We congratulate all the children who received their 1st Holy Communion this year. We would like to assure the children and their families of our continued prayers.

Peter's Pence

The Annual Peter's Pence Collection to support the Holy Father, Pope Francis and the Pontifical Charities will take place next weekend. This will replace the usual Share Collection. The purpose of the annual collection is to enable our Holy Father to express his solidarity with those who endure the grievous wounds of poverty, deprivation & injustice, in the name of the Church.

“In all places and circumstances, Christians, with the help of their pastors, are called to hear the cry of the poor.” Pope Francis – Evangelii Gaudium
Thank you for your continued support.
