Entrance Hymn

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
 The darkness deepens;
 Lord, with me abide;
 When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
 Help of the helpless, oh,
 abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
 Earth's joys grow dim,
 its glories pass away;
 Change and decay in all around I see—
 O Thou who changest not,
 abide with me.

Recessional Hymn

Make me a channel of your peace,
 where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
 Where there is injury, your pardon Lord, and where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace. Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
 Where there is darkness only light and where there's sadness, ever joy.

Refrain

*O Master, grant that I may never seek,
 so much to be consoled as to console.
 To be understood as to understand,
 to be loved as to love with all my soul.*

Make me a channel of your peace.
 It is in pardoning that we are pardoned.
 In giving to all men that we receive,
 and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Parish News & Announcements:

Children of the Resurrection

In today's Gospel, the Sadducees are trying to trap Jesus, using a slightly exaggerated and absurd case about whose wife someone will be in heaven if they have married many times. They have no faith in the resurrection and therefore do not grasp that in a place of peace, justice and freedom, people cannot be 'owned' or 'given.'
 Questions like the one posed by the Sadducees ignore the radical freshness of the Kingdom of God. All we really can be sure of is that that place will be radically different to anything we know, a new creation.
 We are all 'children of this world' who are called to be 'children of the resurrection.' You might recall today someone who has passed away, who in some sense, because of their influence on people, 'lives on' in the lives of those they touched. But they are 'children of the resurrection' not because of their own goodness, but because of the power of Christ to raise us from the dead.
 Let us use this week to notice the moments of resurrection all around us. God's Kingdom is also here and now, if we allow ourselves to be present and aware to this ongoing 'new creation'.
'You were born a child of light's wonderful secret – you return to the beauty you have always been.' Aberjhani

A Time of Gathering Together with the Bereaved of our Parish

A warm welcome to all the families gathered here this weekend to remember their loved ones who have died during the past year.
 We are happy to have an opportunity to pray with you on the journey of bereavement.
We assure you of a continued remembrance in our prayers.
 We invite you to a cup of tea in St. Joseph's after Mass.

An Eternal Memory...

...Until We Meet Again

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile if only I could have you back for just a little while Then we could sit and talk again just like we used to do you always meant so very much and always will do too
 The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain but you're forever in my heart
 until we meet again

November – Month of the Holy Souls

The November Altar List of the Dead is one of the many ways in which we remember our deceased relatives and friends, and join our intentions in the Masses the priests offer for the repose of their souls. Please take a November Altar List of the Dead (Available at the back of the Church). Place your completed List in one of the envelopes provided and return it in the Sunday Collection Baskets. The names of all those on the Altar List of the Dead are included in the 1st Friday Masses throughout the year.

"It is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead."
