A Few Words from Fr Joe...

I saw four teenaged girls in full school uniform on the street the other day, I checked my watch for the date, August 24th, where did the summer go! So, a week earlier than I’d planned, let’s give a big shout out for all the school communities gathering in again for another year of hard work, great learning and fun filled days. Special welcome to any new teachers, new families and students starting in a new school.

Our Catholic schools have a special role to play within the wider faith community and we pray God’s blessing on all who form, teach and share faith with our young people, thank you.

It’s hard to believe that it is Fr Tony’s anniversary. We remember Fr Tony at our Masses this weekend.

Forming new Parish Leadership Teams

As we enter into another week of prayerful reflection on forming new PPC’s for Mount Merrion, Clonskeagh and Kilmacud could I ask for some feedback on your own discernment. Maybe a note or email jmullan39@eircom.net would be enough. It would be great to hear from a few people about what would excite you about participation in leadership for the next 3 years.

PATHWAYS: EXPLORING FAITH & MINISTRY

Application is now open for the next intake of participants for Pathways. The programme, run by the Dublin Archdiocese, begins this year on Thursday, September 29, in DCU St Patrick’s Campus.
Places are limited so early application is advisable.

Pathways is a two-year, one evening a week course, for adults of all ages who wish to explore their faith. It runs from late September to May each year, with breaks for Christmas, Easter and mid-terms. There are no exams and no written work. The only requirement is an openness to listening to others and to participate. The cost is €400 per year which may be paid in instalments throughout the year. For more info visit www.missionministry.ie or contact Pathways director Eileen Houlahan, CHF, PhD, at 01 8087594
