A few words from Fr Joe.....

The simple words ‘thank you’ don’t seem like nearly enough when the gratitude you feel for the kindness and generosity of others has been absolutely overwhelming. But they are a start! During the past three weeks, there have been events to mark my 40th Anniversary of Priesthood in each of the three parishes which together make up the Trinity of Faith partnership. Each of them has given us an opportunity to pray together, share in hospitality, and reflect on the relationship between priests and their parishioners. On Sunday last the official partnership celebration was just fantastic. I know a committee representing all parishes was formed back in January and met month by month to prepare every aspect of the day. The animation of 5 choirs was masterful and the music on the day was magnificent. It was also possible to invite my family and friends, parishioners from previous appointments and some priest friends too. The hospitality was so generous and thoughtful, with an abundance of cake which was enjoyed by all. I received the most beautiful white vestment as a gift from you all and I will wear it with pride at special masses, weddings and celebrations in the years ahead, it will always remind me of the goodness, affection and care of the people here. My house is full of cards, greetings and gifts and I appreciate every one of them. My family came in great numbers with one brother and sister in law crossing the Atlantic to be here and many nephews and nieces travelling from across Europe. It was the first time since a family funeral in 2019 that we were all together and they join me in expressing appreciation for everything they experienced here. There is no doubt it deepened their understanding of how well I, and my brother priests, are supported by the communities we serve. So once again I say those simple words, thank you, to each and every one who shares the life of faith, prayer and praise of God here in the Trinity of Faith partnership along with me in such a joyful, uplifting and supportive way. Last Sunday was one of the happiest days of my life and I will cherish the memories for years to come.
